To install Captain Linked, simply click the Chrome extension icon. Note: Captain Linked is currently unavailable for the American market. What's Captain Linked about? This extension is about automation. If you use LinkedIn every day, you may have experienced that you would like to like posts by your friends on the social network. However, clicking the Like button on your web browser is not that easy. Even if you can find a way to automate the likes, it is not convenient since the extension adds a new button on your LinkedIn profile. That's why this Chrome extension is very useful for automating tasks on LinkedIn. Once you have installed it, you can use it to like posts by your friends on the platform in a click. Also, the add-on can send a personalized email invitation to connect with people you like on LinkedIn and can follow companies and people based on the posts you like. Would you like to know more? Please visit Captain Linked's website here. How this add-on works Once you download this add-on for Chrome, it will connect to your LinkedIn account and add a button to the platform's interface. That button will allow you to follow companies and people that interest you via the extension. That permits the add-on to automatically like all the new posts of those that you follow. This extension helps people automate their LinkedIn engagement, and that's quite helpful, allowing us to spend more time on other activities than on manually liking and sharing posts on social media. In addition, this extension gives users a unique invitation link that they can share with their contacts. That link allows them to attract more followers via the extension for Chrome. Why should you install it? People spend most of their time on social media. However, that also means that many people spend more time on social networks than on their daily activities.

Captain Linked Free [32|64bit] 2022

Description LinkedIn is the world's leading employment-focused social network. On this platform, companies and professionals from around the globe can engage and discover new opportunities for their businesses and, respectively, their careers. Captain Linked Serial Key, which is a Chrome extension, helps users get the maximum out of LinkedIn. How this add-on works Captain Linked Product Key connects to your LinkedIn account and adds a button to the platform's interface. That button will allow you to follow companies and people that interest you via the extension. That permits the add-on to automatically like all the new posts of those that you follow. This extension helps people automate their LinkedIn engagement, and that's quite helpful, allowing us to spend more time on other activities than on manually liking and sharing posts on social media. In addition, Captain Linked gives users a unique invitation link that they can share with their contacts. Thus, users can attract more followers via this add-on for Chrome. Features for organizations This extension also comes with some functions that benefit the company pages on LinkedIn. If you are the administrator of such a page, you can straightforwardly see the recent activity and the list of your followers via Captain Linked. Also, as in the case of regular accounts, company pages' administrators can share an invitational link to attract more views and followers. A well-designed platform, overall The add-on comes with a clean interface and some exciting functions to help individuals and companies automate their LinkedIn engagements. The extension performs well, but one of its features, Endorsements, is unavailable for the moment due to some technical issues, so I could not test it. There's no hint as to when the function will come back. In conclusion, Captain Linked puts LinkedIn on autopilot. The extension focuses on attracting more followers for people and companies on the beforementioned social network, so it is quite helpful.
